

PROGRAM BOOK ADVERTISING

This year, in honor of the chamber's 110th anniversary, we're producing a special program book to be released Nov. 7 at our Fall Business Breakfast (the chamber's largest annual gathering).

The publication will showcase the Chamber's history, membership, and ongoing role in strengthening our regional economy. The publication will also celebrate our 2025 R.L. Tennant Award honoree, Amy Schectman, CEO of 2Life Communities.

By placing an ad, you'll not only connect your brand with more than a century of business leadership and community impact — you'll also help support the Chamber's year-round programming and advocacy on behalf of our region's businesses. Your message will be seen by hundreds of civic and business leaders at the event and be available well beyond through print and digital formats.
